COROT, J. B. C.

Jean Baptiste Camille Corot was born in Paris, 1796, the son of a prosperous tradesman; pupil of Michallon and Victors Bertin, and traveled in Italy in 1826. Traveled much in France, painting from nature and creating a style out of his experiments. Although at first neglected by the public, his patrimonial fortune enabled him to live comfortably and paint to suit himself. He received medals 1833, 1848, 1855, 1867; was given the Legion of Honor in 1846, and became an Officer in 1867. He died in Paris in 1875. The influence of Corot on the art of our time cannot be overestimated. He lifted landscape painting into the realm of idyllic poetry, just as Rousseau gave it a tragic, and Diaz a romantic significance. Each man painted according to his feelings. The spirit of the south which burned in Diaz, the melancholy of an unhappy life which darkened Rousseau, was replaced in Corot by a genial gayety of temperament which reflects itself in his works.
